JUNE 4-9

This program is for eligible youth center users (who have completed their freshman or sophomore year in 2005) who would like to explore the US Air Force Academy as a possible choice for college. Teens must participate in a wide variety of outdoor and class activities at the six day camp. Activities include ropes course, swimming, flight simulator training, wilderness orienteering, horseback riding, team building exercises, academy tours, and piloting an aircraft. Interested teens can pick up an application form at their base youth center. Applications should be submitted by March 2, 2005 to the Hurlburt Youth Center.

Children's Arts & Literature Showcase

SSgt. Cantry, his son CJ Canty and School Age Program member Jamia Washaradayshagon admired the artwork displayed during the Arts and Literature Showcase at the Children's Art and Literature Showcase held on Jan. 20. This gala event showcased the artistic and literacy expression by School Age Program children.
